

I am writing because of my concern regarding Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air, just days before the presidential election, a one-sided documentary that is anti-Kerry.

Since Sinclair is able to use the public airwaves at no cost, this, I believe, is an irresponsible act. I would hope that the FCC would not allow such media ownership that pre-empts programing that is more in the public's best interest. Thank you.